The annual Family Fun Celebration of NAIDOC week, brought to you by IWC is on again!

The spirit of NAIDOC week is to come together as a nation to celebrate the culture, achievements, and rich history of the First Nations People.

So lets gather our Mob and host the members of our community for a cultural celebration!

The IWC Family Fun Day in celebration of NAIDOC Week is bringing First Nations culture to the spotlight at Lions Park in Gayndah on Thursday July 7th 10.30am-1.30pm.

Cynthia George, Assistant Manager of IWC North Burnett says, “it’s my favourite event of the year, seeing the community coming together and embracing the history and culture of our community. The Boomerang painting is so popular with attendees and our Didgeridoo demonstration is always very well received. It’s just a really great day for everyone”

This FREE, community event provides activities focused on showcasing Indigenous culture through fun activities, demonstrations, and presentations.

Get hands on cultural experience through Boomerang and Clapstick painting, Boomerang throwing lessons, Indigenous dancers and beading your own jewellery.

There is even prizes available for best design on the clap sticks and boomerangs, plus lucky door prizes!

Those attending the day won't go hungry either - there will also be a Free Sausage sizzle. So join us for a day of culture, fun and family!
