Attachment 1 – Conditions to be imposed by Concurrency Agency

No.	Conditions
Gene	eneral
1.	Unless otherwise stated in a particular condition, all conditions must be completed prior to the completion of building works, or issue of a final certificate, whichever is the sooner, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Concurrence Agency.
Desig	n and Siting
2.	The approved shade structure must be sited a minimum 3.4metres from the Strathdee street, Mundubbera property boundary, with all setbacks measured from the outermost projection of the structure.
3.	The floor area of the approved must not exceed 62m ²
4.	The shade structure is maintained as an 'open' structure and only to be infilled with walling as marked on the approved plan.
5.	The overall height of the approved shade structure must not exceed 3 4.5 metres measured from natural ground level.
6.	Utilise colours in the development that are sympathetic to the surrounding environment and avoid excessive brightness, contrast, colour intensity, and reflectivity. In this regard, materials/colours on the roof and wall of the structures must not reflect glare into the habitable rooms of any dwelling on surrounding allotments.
7.	A CCTV survey inspection is to be performed of the existing sewer and stormwater mains through the property before commencement and upon completion of the works. The video footage and any defects are to be reported immediately to the North Burnett Regional Council after each survey inspection. The cost of the CCTV inspections are at the owner's expense.
Use
8.	The approved shade structure is to be used for dining area associated to the motel business. To this end, the use of the approved building/s associated with this approval must be ancillary and incidental to the predominant use of the site for a Motel.
10.	The approved shade structure must not be used for habitable purposes.
11.	The openings of the approved shade structure must not be enclosed in accordance with Approved Plan documentation

Attachment 1B - Advice Notes

A.	This Concurrence Agency Response does not represent a development approval for Building Works under the Building Act 1975 .
B.	All building works the subject of this notice can only proceed once a development permit for building works is issued by a Building Certifier.
C.	Please note this amenity and aesthetics assessment pertains to the approval of a class 10 building only (defined as Domestic Carport, Shed and Garage (10a)). It is recommended that clarification from a Building Certifier be sought to ensure that an appropriate building classification is applied to align with the building size, purpose, use and intent of operations within the building.
D.	Prior to any alteration or modification of a building, it is recommended that an inspection be undertaken of the resite/removal dwelling or building by a qualified person/s to determine the existence of Asbestos Cement Material (ACM), Asbestos Cement Products (ACP) or any other material not deemed as an acceptable construction material as defined in the Australian Standards or the Building Code of Australia.

Attachment 3 - Planning Act 2016 Extract Appeal Rights

CHAPTER 6, PART 1 APPEAL RIGHTS 229 Appeals to tribunal or P&E Court

- (1) Schedule 1 states-
 - (a) matters that may be appealed to-
 - (i) either a tribunal or the P&E Court; or
 - (ii) only a tribunal; or
 - (iii) only the P&E Court; and
 - (b) the person-
 - (i) who may appeal a matter (the appellant); and
 - (ii) who is a respondent in an appeal of the matter; and
 - (iii) who is a co-respondent in an appeal of the matter; and
 - (iv) who may elect to be a co-respondent in an appeal of the matter.
- (2) An appellant may start an appeal within the appeal period.
- (3) The appeal period is-
 - (a) for an appeal by a building advisory agency—10 business days after a decision notice for the decision is given to the agency; or
 - (b) for an appeal against a deemed refusal—at any time after the deemed refusal happens; or
 - (c) for an appeal against a decision of the Minister, under chapter 7, part 4, to register premises or to renew the registration of premises—20 business days after a notice is published under section 269(3)(a) or (4); or
 - (d) for an appeal against an infrastructure charges notice—20 business days after the infrastructure charges notice is given to the person; or
 - (e) for an appeal about a deemed approval of a development application for which a decision notice has not been given—30 business days after the applicant gives the deemed approval notice to the assessment manager; or
 - (f) for any other appeal—20 business days after a notice of the decision for the matter, including an enforcement notice, is given to the person.
 - Note—See the P&E Court Act for the court's power to extend the appeal period.
- (4) Each respondent and co-respondent for an appeal may be heard in the appeal.
- (5) If an appeal is only about a referral agency's response, the assessment manager may apply to the tribunal or P&E Court to withdraw from the appeal.
- (6) To remove any doubt, it is declared that an appeal against an infrastructure charges notice must not be about—
 - (a) the adopted charge itself; or
 - (b) for a decision about an offset or refund-
 - (i) the establishment cost of trunk infrastructure identified in a LGIP; or
 - (ii) the cost of infrastructure decided using the method included in the local government's charges resolution.

230 Notice of appeal

- (1) An appellant starts an appeal by lodging, with the registrar of the tribunal or P&E Court, a notice of appeal that—
 - (a) is in the approved form; and
 - (b) succinctly states the grounds of the appeal.
- (2) The notice of appeal must be accompanied by the required fee.
- (3) The appellant or, for an appeal to a tribunal, the registrar, must, within the service period, give a copy of the notice of appeal to—
 - (a) the respondent for the appeal; and
 - (b) each co-respondent for the appeal; and
 - (c) for an appeal about a development application under schedule 1, table 1, item 1—each principal submitter for the development application; and
 - (d) for an appeal about a change application under schedule 1, table 1, item 2—each principal submitter for the change application; and
 - (e) each person who may elect to become a co-respondent for the appeal, other than an eligible submitter who is not a principal submitter in an appeal under paragraph (c) or (d); and
 - (f) for an appeal to the P&E Court—the chief executive; and
 - (g) for an appeal to a tribunal under another Act—any other person who the registrar considers appropriate.

- (4) The service period is-
 - (a) if a submitter or advice agency started the appeal in the P&E Court—2 business days after the appeal is started; or
 - (b) otherwise—10 business days after the appeal is started.
- (5) A notice of appeal given to a person who may elect to be a co-respondent must state the effect of subsection (6).
- (6) A person elects to be a co-respondent by filing a notice of election, in the approved form, within 10 business days after the notice of appeal is given to the person.
- (7) Despite any other Act or rules of court to the contrary, a copy of a notice of appeal may be given to the chief executive by emailing the copy to the chief executive at the email address stated on the department's website for this purpose.

SCHEDULE 1 APPEALS (section 229)

- Appeal rights and parties to appeals
- (1) Table 1 states the matters that may be appealed to—
 - (a) the P&E court; or
 - (b) a tribunal.
- (2) However, table 1 applies to a tribunal only if the matter involves—
 - (a) the refusal, or deemed refusal of a development application, for-
 - (i) a material change of use for a classified building; or
 - (ii) operational work associated with building work, a retaining wall, or a tennis court; or
 - (b) a provision of a development approval for-
 - (i) a material change of use for a classified building; or
 - (ii) operational work associated with building work, a retaining wall, or a tennis court; or
 - (c) if a development permit was applied for—the decision to give a preliminary approval for—
 - (i) a material change of use for a classified building; or
 - (ii) operational work associated with building work, a retaining wall, or a tennis court; or
 - (d) a development condition if-
 - (i) the development approval is only for a material change of use that involves the use of a building classified under the Building Code as a class 2 building; and
 - (ii) the building is, or is proposed to be, not more than 3 storeys; and
 - (iii) the proposed development is for not more than 60 sole-occupancy units; or
 - (e) a decision for, or a deemed refusal of, an extension application for a development approval that is only for a material change of use of a classified building; or
 - (f) a decision for, or a deemed refusal of, a change application for a development approval that is only for a material change of use of a classified building; or
 - (g) a matter under this Act, to the extent the matter relates to the Building Act, other than a matter under that Act that may or must be decided by the Queensland Building and Construction Commission; or
 - (h) a decision to give an enforcement notice-
 - (i) in relation to a matter under paragraphs (a) to (g); or
 - (ii) under the Plumbing and Drainage Act; or
 - (i) an infrastructure charges notice; or
 - (j) the refusal, or deemed refusal, of a conversion application; or
 - (k) a matter prescribed by regulation.
- (3) Also, table 1 does not apply to a tribunal if the matter involves—
 - (a) for a matter in subsection (2)(a) to (d)—
 - (i) a development approval for which the development application required impact assessment; and
 - (ii) a development approval in relation to which the assessment manager received a properly made submission for the development application; or
 - (b) a provision of a development approval about the identification or inclusion, under a variation approval, of a matter for the development.
- (4) Table 2 states the matters that may be appealed only to the P&E Court.
- (5) Table 3 states the matters that may be appealed only to the tribunal.
- (6) In each table-
 - (a) column 1 states the appellant in the appeal; and
 - (b) column 2 states the respondent in the appeal; and
 - (c) column 3 states the co-respondent (if any) in the appeal; and
 - (d) column 4 states the co-respondents by election (if any) in the appeal.
- (7) If the chief executive receives a notice of appeal under section 230(3)(f), the chief executive may elect to be a corespondent in the appeal.
- (8) In this section
 - storey see the Building Code, part A1.1.
