 - x. Except for complaints made anonymously, Council will inform an affected person in writing of the Council's decision about the complaint and the reasons for the decision; and
 - xi. Complainants will be provided with information on any internal and external review options available.

PROCEDURE DETAIL

Who can make an Administrative Action Complaint?

- 12) Any affected person can make an Administrative Action Complaint.
- 13) Where there is a need, a complaint can be made by an agent on behalf of an affected person. If a complaint is lodged by an agent, Council will respond directly to that agent.
- 14) Council will take all reasonable steps to confirm that the agent has the appropriate authority to act on behalf of the complainant. Unless the complaint is made anonymously, written authorisation to act as the complainants agent will be required.

Complaining anonymously

- 15) Affected persons are able to make a complaint anonymously if they wish.
- 16) If a complainant does decide to complain anonymously, the need to provide sufficient information for the matter to be investigated is critical. If made anonymously, it will not be possible for Council to clarify or request further information from the complainant. Further, it will not be possible to advise the complainant of Council's decision and the reasons for that decision in relation to the complaint.

How to make a complaint

- 17) Affected persons, or their agent can request assistance from a Council Officer on how to make a complaint by contacting a Council Customer Service centre.
- 18) Council will not tolerate abusive or disrespectful behaviour from persons making a complaint.
- 19) A complainant may make a complaint in any of the following ways:
- Orally, either by telephone or in person;
 - By email to admin@northburnett.qld.gov.au; or
 - In writing
- 20) All written complaints must be address to:
- The Chief Executive Officer
North Burnett Regional Council
PO Box 390
GAYNDAH QLD 4625
- 21) A complainant who makes a verbal complaint will be strongly encouraged to commit the complaint in writing to ensure that all matters relating to the complaint are clearly documented.

Taking action on a complaint

- 22) After receiving a complaint, Council's Chief Executive Officer or delegate will make a decision on how best to deal with the matter.
- 23) Where a complaint is referred to an external entity for consideration, Council will inform the complainant in writing of this action.
- 24) In some cases, Council may invite an affected person to provide further information, including written statements and evidence to support possible legal action, to assist Council to fully understand the concerns, the issue/s to be investigated (where an investigation is to be undertaken) and the outcome or remedy sought.

Assessing a complaint

- 25) Council may refuse to investigate a complaint, or, having started to investigate a complaint, refuse to continue to investigate if it reasonably considers that:
- i. The complaint is trivial; or
 - ii. The complaint concerns a frivolous matter or was made vexatiously; or
 - iii. The complainant is found not to be an affected person; or
 - iv. The complainant has a right of appeal, reference or review, or another remedy that the person has not exhausted; or
 - v. In the circumstances, investigating the complaint is unnecessary or an unjustifiable use of Council resources; or
 - vi. The complaint is made anonymously and there is insufficient information provided to investigate the complaint.
- 26) Other than for complaints made anonymously, Council will provide the affected person with advice of a decision to refuse to investigate the complaint and the reasons for the decision, including any internal or external review options available.

Investigating a complaint

27) An investigation of a complaint will be undertaken by Council in an impartial, objective, and as far as reasonably possible, confidential manner. The investigation of a complaint will typically involve the following stages:

- Information gathering, including discussions and interviews with the complainant, Council staff, Councillors, contractors and third parties (where relevant);
- Analysis of all relevant information obtained;
- Preparation of a report on the results of the investigation, including as appropriate formulation of findings and any recommendations;

Keeping the complainant informed

28) All Administrative Action Complaints will be acknowledged in writing.

29) Complaints will be dealt with as promptly as possible acknowledging that some matters may involve complex issues, including referral to, and /or investigation by external agencies and third parties where required.

30) In providing written acknowledgement to a complainant, where possible, an indication of the expected time frame is to be included.

31) Where extended time frames are likely to occur, Council will inform the complainant in writing accordingly.

Possible remedies and redress

32) If a complaint is upheld, consideration is to be given to an appropriate form of redress that is fair to both the complainant and the Council. Similar remedies should be offered to all persons in any future similar situation.

33) Examples of a possible, or combination, of remedies that may apply include:

- Issue of an apology
- Change of decision
- Change of policy, procedure or practice
- Refund, remission of penalty, reimbursement or waiver of debt
- Correction of misleading or incorrect records
- Repair or rework
- Technical assistance
- Training
- Discipline

Internal review

34) Other than where Council's written decision on an Administrative Action Complaint has been signed by the Chief Executive Officer, stating that the decision is Council's final position on a matter, a complainant who remains dissatisfied with the decision may apply in writing to the Chief Executive Officer seeking an internal review of that decision.

35) An officer equal to, or senior to the original decision maker, and who has no prior involvement or conflict of interest in the subject matter, is to conduct the internal review and provide written advice to the complainant of the outcome of that review.

External review

36) A complainant who remains dissatisfied with Council's decision on an Administrative Action Complaint may seek an external review of that decision from an appropriate oversight agency, including via the Queensland Ombudsman, refer www.ombudsman.qld.gov.au

Privacy and Confidentiality

- 37) Council is committed to the privacy principles of the Information Privacy Act 2009. In protecting confidentiality, Council will ensure that the details of the complaint, the investigation and related decisions will be kept confidential.
- 38) Whilst every attempt to protect confidentiality will be made, there may be occasions when disclosure of details of a complaint may be legally required.

Record Keeping and Reporting

- 39) Council will maintain a confidential file for Administrative Action Complaints.
- 40) As required, Council's Annual Report will include various statistical details regarding Administrative Action Complaints. Current requirements for publicly reported information include:
- Number of Administrative Action Complaints made to Council
 - Number resolved under this procedure
 - Number not resolved under this procedure
 - Number not resolved under this procedure from the previous financial year.
- 41) The Executive Leadership Team and Council will receive reports from time to time to enable management to monitor the effectiveness of Council's Administrative Action Complaint system and to further identify, analyse and respond to complaint trends.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

First Level Complaints

- 42) First level complaints are complaints which have not previously been reviewed/assessed by Council.
- 43) Non-complex first level complaints may be capable of resolution by staff at the frontline.
- 44) More complex first level complaints should be managed by the relevant operational area and investigated, managed and responded to at the Manager, or Supervisor level.

Second Level Complaints – Internal Review

- 45) Generally, a complaint will not be investigated at the second level (internal review) until it has progressed through the first level process and the complainant remains dissatisfied.
- 46) Internal reviews will be undertaken by the relevant General Manager of the operational area to which the complaint relates providing they were not involved in the first level review, otherwise to the Chief Executive Officer.
- 47) In certain circumstances, it may be appropriate for a complaint to escalate straight to second level internal review having regard to the history of the complaint, complexity, or other reasons deemed appropriate by a General Manager or the Chief Executive Officer.

Governance

- 48) Governance staff will be responsible for administering the Administrative Action Complaints Register and compiling of statistical data for reporting purposes.
